NEED STATEMENT: EDUCATION/CURRICULUM

DESCRIPTION: Faith Farm Ministries has developed a model for success for every individual that enters our program. Within that model is an educational curriculum that enhances the lives of our residents and offers several tools and skills to help them during their recovery, and prepare them for their re-entry into society. This nine month curriculum is accredited by South Florida Bible College and Theological Seminary for 9 college Credits. To date it's the only known college accredited addiction recovery program. Faith Farm also provides a mandatory General Education Development (GED) program for individuals entering Faith Farm's nine month addiction recovery program who do not have a High School diploma. Our GED program requires a least two experienced adult education instructors for each of its three campuses. At Faith Farm's Boynton Beach campus our instructors have a key resource that involves a partnership with the Palm Beach County Literacy Coalition" for Language Arts and Mathematics courses. In order to provide the material for these classes we order all available books, workbooks, DVD's, Study Bibles, notebooks, binders and other study guides and we also do a substantial amount of in house printing of curriculum at Faith Farm.

BENEFIT: We are committed to educating their lives in order for them to continue a life of sobriety and be successful when they graduate our program. Our curriculum contains courses such as: Anger Management, The Alpha Series, Purpose Driven Life, Lies Women Believe, Honor's Rewards, Pursuit of Holiness, Chemical Dependency, Restoring Families, Character Qualities, The Search for Significance, Daily Moral Inventory, Power to Love, Battlefield of the Mind, Wounded Heart and The Man I Want to Be. These classes, which are taught by our staff, offer insight to recovery and are important to the individual who gains the knowledge for success. Regarding our GED preparation, adults who acquire an education have increased employment opportunities that far exceed those without it.
