NEED STATEMENT: GENERAL EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT

DESCRIPTION: Faith Farm provides a mandatory General Education Development (GED) program for individuals entering Faith Farm's 9 month addiction recovery program who do not have a high school diploma. Our GED program requires at least 2 experienced adult education instructors for each of its 3 campuses in addition to staff and material support. At Faith Farm's Boynton Beach campus our instructors have a key resource through a partnership with the Palm Beach County Literacy Coalition" providing $1,000/month for Language Arts and Mathematics courses. Additionally, all classroom space, tutoring, student support supplies and GED testing transportation requirements are supplied by Faith Farm free of charge to every student.

BENEFIT: Our students at Faith Farm with a GED are able to get the education they need to become successful and productive members of society when they graduate the program. Adults who acquire an education have increased employment opportunities that far exceed those without it.

COST: $25,000 with no fundraising or administrative fees removed.
