

CORPORATE GIVING

If your organization is looking for a means to be part of social responsibility, we invite you to partner with Faith Farm and support our mission of saving lives, restoring families and providing a brighter future for those struggling with addiction. Faith Farm may be your solution to:

- Building your brand and customer affinity through cause related marketing.
- Have a national affinity with clients due to our national admissions.
- Underwrite events at low cost where marketing benefits can be leveraged.
- Procure long term exposure via signage rights on our vehicle fleet of box trucks and vans.
- Hire your work force from Faith Farm's CWT Institute. Students receive certificates in various Comprehensive Work Training modules that prepare them for employment.
- Combine corporate marketing with education initiatives such as GED training or "Green", student run, award winning micro-enterprise.
